

For Immediate Release

Contact: Laura Schenone (646) 734-6378, lauraschenone@childcenterny.org
Jen Dudley (718) 651-7770 x 301, jenniferdudley@childcenterny.org

Philanthropist and Business Leader Roger Altman
To Be Honored by The Child Center of NY

Well respected for his stellar investment banking career and for his service to two U.S. presidents, Roger Altman of Evercore will be honored at The Child Center of NY's annual spring gala in Manhattan on Wednesday, April 23, 2013. The event will acknowledge his leadership in business, and his enormous contributions to charitable causes ranging from health and culture, to education and conserving our planet.

Mr. Altman is the founder and executive chairman of Evercore, which has become the most active independent investment bank in the United States. He also served President Clinton as Deputy Secretary of The U.S. Treasury and President Carter as Assistant Secretary for Domestic Finance. Mr. Altman is a trustee of New York-Presbyterian Hospital, serving on its Investment Committee, and is vice chairman of the board of The American Museum of Natural History. He also serves as chairman of New Visions for Public Schools, an agency with which The Child Center collaborates. He is a member of The Council on Foreign Relations and a director of Conservation International.

"I am delighted to support The Child Center of NY, which represents everything which is important to Jurate and me. It is a results-driven organization, completely dedicated to improving children's lives," said Mr. Altman,

"We are thrilled to honor Roger Altman, who has made such a huge contribution to education, the welfare of our children, and our nation. His energy and impact is an inspiration," said Richard Jay, president of the board.

About The Child Center of NY: The Child Center of NY's mission is to help at-risk children and youth succeed in life. Founded in 1953, it is a multiservice organization annually reaching 18,000 at-risk children from birth through young adulthood at 70 school and community locations. Its major program areas feature: early childhood education; individual and family counseling; child abuse prevention; and youth development. The Child Center is based primarily in Queens, NY but also serves children and families in Brooklyn and Manhattan. To learn more, please visit www.childcenterny.org

###